

April 15, 1925.

Mr. Charles H. Collier,
c/o Collier & Hardwicke,
Richmond, Va. .

Dear Sir;

I want to thank you for your communication of March 21st. and in just a little time now I will answer this letter in detail and possibly request certain information from you. I will likewise send you a copy of the genealogy from the sixteenth century up, which mentions the same names as you mentioned in your letter.

My wife has a brother, Albert J. Stephens, that is manager of the Munnally Candy Stores in your City, that moved there recently from Atlanta. He was trained in my store here. Would appreciate it if you could make his personal acquaintance at some time, as he is from one of the very best families in Georgia and likewise his wife.

With sincere regards, I beg to remain

Yours very truly,

JCC:C

J. C. Collier.